

Benis Family Cookbook for the Jewish Holidays

What better way to celebrate the holidays than to cook-- and eat-- the delicious foods so important to Jewish tradition. Heres a sumptuous collection of recipes for every Jewish holiday through the year. Jane Breskin Zalben has gathered treasured mouth-watering recipes from her family and friends. Such favorites as matzoh ball soup, noodle kugel, and gefilte fish are here, as well as kasha varnishkas, hamantaschen, and macaroons. Each section of the cookbook features a different holiday and includes notes on its religious and cultural importance. There are also amusing introductory notes for every recipe. Ms. Zalbens festive, detailed pastel-watercolor illustrations of her beloved bears grace the pages, making this a feast for the eyes as well as the tummy. Full of homespun charm and warmth, Benis Family Cookbook is the next best thing to Bubbes recipe box-- the perfect holiday gift for the whole family.
