

HIS: Union Book Two

Ariana was summoned to the handsome Russian Billionaire, Nickolai Antonovich's office. If she didn't agree to become his submissive wife to enable him to close an important business deal with a traditional man who believes in marriage, he threatened to expose her sister's theft from his company to the police and have her put in prison. After a bad experience with her first marriage to a violent man, Ariana was reluctant. But the Russians' strong dominance is a potent aphrodisiac. Promising to protect her from her stalking husband, the billionaire vows she will want for nothing as his wife. Greatly tempted after experiencing life as a struggle, Ariana found herself agreeing to his terms. In Union, Ariana finds herself submitting to the Russian billionaire and his proposal of marriage after experiencing further doubts. When her abusive ex-husband threatens to take her from him, Nickolai shows just how far he is prepared to go to protect her. But will she find her new position of submissive wife a role she is willing to play in the long run? Will the Russians' need for her total submission both in their marriage and in his bed prove to be too hard to give? Or will she find unconditional love with the handsome stranger?
