

This is an Emergency: A Collection of Hot, Inspiring Poems That Will Change the Lives of Many Young People

Young people in America are suffering from the effects of crime, negative peer pressure, and family dysfunction. Wrong choices are being made. Wrong paths are being taken. Everyday in our communities, guns are fired, drugs are sold, and families are ripped apart. This is a WAKE UP call. America, this is an EMERGENCY. Another day does not have to pass. Another teenager does not have to end up wounded, in jail, or dead. Together we CAN begin to make the changes that we need in our communities. This is an Emergency was written by James Henry after he saw and experienced the effects that negative peer pressure, crime, and drugs have on Americas youth. A gifted poet, Henry uses a popular form of literature to communicate the message of hope, restoration, and salvation through Jesus Christ. Here are just a few of the powerful poem titles: Theyre Thugs Too; Life, Without Parole; 4-1-1; Bang! Bang!; Listen to the Old Man; Young Girl, You Are Beautiful; That Short Skirt; Stay Smart
