

Samsung vs iPhone

Introduction In the year 2012, apple iPhones and Samsung androids are thought to be the two kings fighting for the throne of the cellular market, apple has been the ruler of the market for quite some time or should I say ruler of the market so far but now Samsung, a Korean cellular company, has stepped in for the race and has been giving quite tough time to the former undisputed champion. Well now have a look how the two brands compete giving each other quite a tough time. Apple iPhones origin: The apple iPhones were launched for the first time in 2007 revolutionizing not only the cellular industry but the techno industry at large with the apps being developed on the base of guiding principle behind the Macintosh computer. After the success of iPhone 1, 2 and 3, currently iPhone 4 is the in-market latest model of apple iPhones proceeding towards the launch of the latest version iPhone 5, which is nowadays the talk of the town, expected to be launched by the years end.
